

specialized communications security. This data system has an internal mechanism to restrict access to authorized officials. Hard-copy records are held in steel cabinets, with access limited by visual controls and/or lock system. During normal working hours, files are attended by responsible officials; files are locked up during non-working hours. The building is patrolled by uniformed security guards.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Hard-copy records are returned to the agency which had contracted for service or collection with FMS at the time an individual account is resolved through collection, compromise, or write-off/close out or at the agency's request. Summary information, such as results of collection action undertaken, for the purpose of producing management reports is retained for a period of five (5) years.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

System Manager, Debt Collection Operations Staff, Financial Management Service, 401 14th Street, SW, Washington, DC 20227.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Inquiries under the Privacy Act of 1974 shall be addressed to the Disclosure Officer, Financial Management Service, 401 14th Street, SW, Washington, DC 20227. All individuals making inquiries should provide with their request as much descriptive matter as is possible to identify the particular record desired. The system manager will advise as to whether FMS maintains the records requested by the individual.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Individuals requesting information under the Privacy Act of 1974 concerning procedures for gaining access or contesting records should write to the Disclosure Officer. All individuals are urged to examine the rules of the U.S. Department of the Treasury published in 31 CFR part, subpart C, appendix G, concerning requirements of this Department with respect to the Privacy Act of 1974.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records are retrievable by the name of the person to whom they apply.

SAFEGUARDS:

Records are locked up during nonworking hours and during periods when the work area is vacant. Access is strictly controlled and limited to employees who have a need for such records in the course of their work. Background checks are made on employees. All facilities where records are stored have access limited to authorized personnel or individuals in the company of authorized personnel. Access controls will not be less than those provided by the Automated Information System Security Handbook, IRM 2(10)00.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Legal files are generally retired to the Federal Records Center (FRC) one year after they are closed. The FRC will retain "significant case" files an additional 19 years and dispose of them 20 years after they are closed. Other legal files are retained in the FRC 4 years after they are transferred to the FRC and disposed of 5 years after they are closed. Duplicate National Office monitoring files are destroyed immediately upon notification that the field has closed its file. National Office unjacketed case files (e.g., appeals for which no monitoring files exist: FOIA requests, search warrants, formal technical advice and miscellaneous legal opinions) are retained for ten years after closing. National Office original centralized grand jury files and administrative case files are maintained indefinitely. Files transferred from other functions are returned to the source when no longer needed.
